

Sustainable Food Systems Graduate Certificate

The 12 semester hour Sustainable Food Systems Graduate Certificate is an interdisciplinary certificate program emphasizing theories, resources, and strategies relevant to establishing and maintaining sustainable food systems. Contact Dr. Bob Williams at 903-886-5350 or email Bob.Williams@tamuc.edu for more information. The program consists of the following courses:

Required courses

AG 507	Water Issues and Ethics	3
AG 508	Gardening Across the Curriculum	3
FDSC 511	Food in Social Context	3
FDSC 521	Community Food Systems	3
Total Hours		12

Note: Students must have admission to the Graduate School. Coursework must be completed at Texas A&M University-Commerce with a 3.0 GPA in all courses used for this graduate certificate. (No Substitutions)