

Chemical Dependency Counseling Graduate Certificate

This certificate will prepare professionals with the necessary theories, assessments and modalities to counsel, prepare, and implement treatment plans for substance abuse clients, their families, and co-workers. Contact Dr. LaVelle Hendricks at LaVelle.Hendricks@tamuc.edu.

The Chemical Dependency Counseling Graduate Certificate Program requires admission to the Graduate School and includes 12 semester hours of graduate coursework.

Requirements to complete the Chemical Dependency Counseling Graduate Certificate (12 semester hours)

| | | |
|-------------------------|--|-----------|
| COUN 505 or COUN 501 | Introduction to College Student Affairs Introduction to the Counseling Profession | 3 |
| COUN 510 | Counseling Theories and Techniques | 3 |
| COUN 581 | Assessment and Treatment of Chemical Dependency | 3 |
| COUN 555 or COUN 552 | Internship in College Student Affairs Internship 1 | 3 |
| Total Hours | | 12 |

Note: All coursework must be taken from Texas A&M University-Commerce with a GPA of at least 3.0 on all courses used for graduate certificate. (No Substitutions)